On your left you see Mia, on the right is Malena. You have just inserted yourself into their gathering. But you have come with good reason. By the time you are done with them, you expect to have these two girls completely under your spell. Fortunately, you have a foolproof plan. What do you do?

Trigger Malena

Trigger Mia

Ask the girls if they would like to have a threesome.

That’s the funny thing about triggers. They only work if you have actually installed them. Turns out Mia has never been hypnotized by you. Try finishing part 1 before this story! Or, if you have already done that, congrats on being a completionist :P

Try Again

Malena slides effortlessly into a trance, just as you trained her to do at the pool. Mia attempts to turn away from you and leave but notices that her friend is not moving.

“What did you do to her?” Mia demands. You could explain to her that you brainwashed her friend and made her into your slave, but instead you think it is best to show her what has happened.

Good thing that before you sent Malena here you gave her instructions to:

Hypnotize Mia when you trigger her. (This means Malena will try to hypnotize Mia now)

Kiss Mia while wearing drugged lipstick (Which, if all went well, happened before you arrived)

Your suggestion worked perfectly. Before you arrived, Malena gave Mia a big kiss. The kiss seemed weird to Mia, but she was not complaining. She often had fantasies about kissing her friend, but never thought Malena was into girls.

This means that the hypnotic drug is in Mia, and she will do whatever you say while the drug is in effect. What do you do?

Suggest that the girls have a naked pool party with you.

Instruct Mia to willingly allow herself to be hypnotized by Malena.

Malena holds Mia close and begins to whisper into her ear. “Just relax and let yourself go. Feel all of your will draining into my eyes. It feels so good to give up control and become mindless. Don’t you want to join me Mia?”

Mia blinks for a moment, unsure of her answer. “I…No.” Seems Mia managed to resist Malena’s induction. To be fair, you don’t know if Malena has ever tried this kind of induction before. Better leave before Mia fully comes out of it.

Try Again

Malena obeys your suggestion instantly and begins to take off her clothes. Mia looks uncertain, but ultimately gives in to the drug that is controlling her and strips naked.

The gathering is a little awkward at first. This is clearly a first time experience for the girls. But then you notice Mia seems to be attracted to Malena's now naked body. You decide to use this by:

Giving Mia complete control of Malena.

Suggesting that Malena become equally infatuated with Mia.

With the girls now equally obsessed with each other, you sit back and enjoy the show. Kissing, touching, everything that you have watched in pornos, but never thought would exist in real life.

Finally you have seen enough and are ready to join in.

Suggest a threesome

Sometimes you are too powerful for your own good. Your actions have caused something more in the girls than just a post hypnotic suggestion. You have caused the girls to realize that they have real feelings for each other.

As a result, they find that their new feelings are stronger than your first session suggestions, allowing them to break free of your hypnotic hold.

If only you had time for more sessions, maybe this could have been avoided.

Déjà vu? (Try again)

Malena holds Mia close and begins to whisper into her ear. “Just relax and let yourself go. Feel all of your will draining into my eyes. It feels so good to give up control and become mindless. Don’t you want to join me Mia?”

Mia stares blankly into Malena’s eyes. “Yes. I want to join you.” You smile as Malena continues to take Mia deeper. Now how would you like to use your new slaves?

Make them lovers.

Make them reinforce each other’s trances.

Mia seems to very much enjoy her new sex slave. You certainly enjoy watching as she makes Malena kiss her, suck pussy, and show off her body.

Several hours later you are ready to take the party inside. You tell Mia to come in with her new toy. "And why would I do that?" Mia asks. "You've had your naked pool party. Now it's time for you to leave."

The drug must have worn off faster than you thought. Mia was free again. Well at least you still had…

"And Malena, you won't respond to anything except what I tell you. Understood?" Mia commands as if reading your mind.

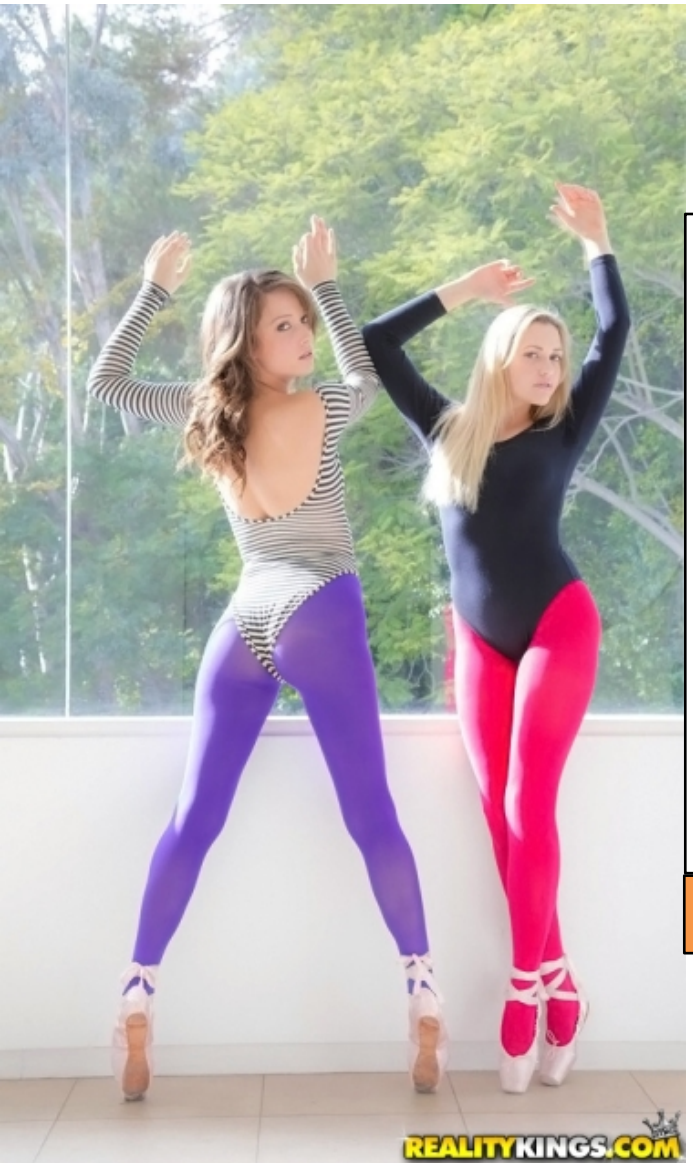
"Yes Mistress." Looks like you have no slaves now.

Try again

With the girls now extremely attracted to one another, you sit back and enjoy the show. Kissing, touching, everything that you have watched in pornos, but never thought would exist in real life.

Finally you have seen enough and are ready to join in.

Suggest a threesome



You arrive to find the girls practicing some dance moves. They are surprised by your presence. While they are subconsciously your slaves, they do not recognize you when they are fully awake.

You trigger each girl and they immediately fall into very deep trances. This is good news. It means that your suggestions worked. You ask the girls if they have been reinforcing your control as instructed,

“Yes Master” They reply in mindless unison.

Make them kiss

This will probably always be a choice in these stories. Though imagine how boring it would be if this were ever the correct way to go! Anyway, you get kicked out of the house and are left alone.

Try Again

Sometimes you are too powerful for your own good. Your actions have caused something more in the girls than just a post hypnotic suggestion. You have caused the girls to realize that they have real feelings for each other.

Déjà vu? (Try again)

You know that the girls are deeply under your hypnosis, but worry that a stronger influence may break your suggestions without reinforcement. You decide to play it safe. You teach Mia how to perform hypnosis and leave the girls with suggestions to reinforce each other's obedience to you over the next several days. Hopefully this is worth the wait.

Check back a week later.

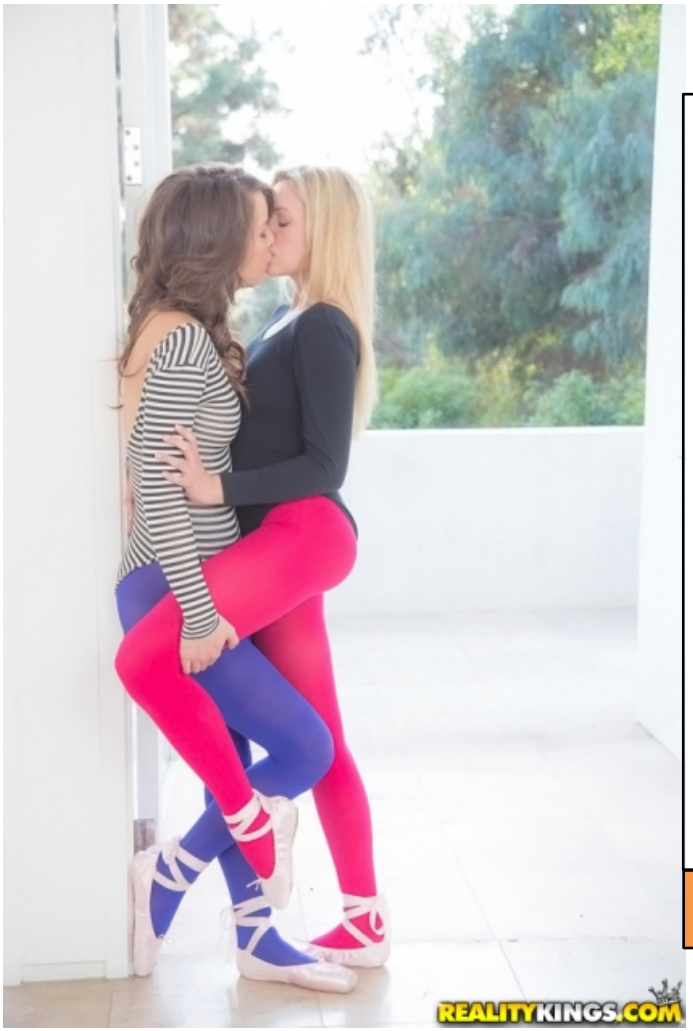
You watch as Mia eats out Malena. As she stands and enjoys the pleasure, you begin to whisper into Malena's ear.

You suggest that the pleasure will build exponentially as you count to 5. And when you reach 5, she will erupt into an orgasm so powerful that simply thinking about it will make her cum again.

You begin to count upward, raising your voice over Malena's growing moans. Finally, you say 5.

Malena's legs buckle and she falls to the ground in ripples of pleasure.

Mia's Turn



You instruct the girls to kiss and they do not hold back. They hold a passionate kiss for several moments before you instruct them to stop. They do as they are told.

Satisfied that your control is now the most important thing in their minds, you are ready to reap the benefits of this whole effort.

You tell the girls to remove their clothes and pleasure each other in preparation for you.

“Yes Master.” The girls obey without questions and begin to perform for you.

Watch the show.

Thank you for reading!

Start over?

Mia demonstrates her excellent flexibility as Malena provides her with pleasure. Again you make sure to be involved by whispering into Mia's ear.

You suggest that the pleasure will replace all of the will in her mind. That when she cums she will be nothing but a mindless shell. You tell her that she will cum when you snap your fingers.

As Mia's moans grow louder you snap your fingers and watch as her quivering body eventually relaxes and then lays motionless. Looks like you are going to have a lot of fun with these two.
